ANGER ONE OF SUMMER SINS

Dr. Smiley to Discuss Subject in West Pulpit on Sunday Night

BRIEF SERVICES

ORDER OF THE DAY

Religious activity continues at West Presbyterian Church throughout the summer. The services for tomorrow, according to the summer schedule, will begin with the session of the Bible School at 10 o'clock. Every summer session of the school is to be made attractive by programs of special interest. The feature of the school gathering tomorrow will be the teaching of the lessons to the primary department by Miss Grace Baird, in the presence of the entire school. Miss Baird is recognized as among the very foremost primary teachers in the religious circles of the country. Her work with the large band of children who surround her has always attracted the presence and praise of the public. Extra accommodations for visitors will be made at this morning meeting tomorrow. All the adult classes will join with the main school for this session.

The regular church service will be held from 11 to 12 o'clock. Dr. Smiley will speak briefly on the theme: "The Soul Satisfied." From 7.30 to 8.30 o'clock the people's popular gospel service will be held. These meetings continue to attract large audiences, notwithstanding the hot weather. The pastor has been commended very much for his strict adherence to the notice of a one-hour service. The program is terminated promptly on the hour.

The fifth of the summer sins will be considered in the practical talk by Dr. Smiley tomorrow evening. The theme will be: "Anger." The usual bright service of song by the congregation, led by the large chorus choir, will open the meeting.

In addition to the regular church services, West Church is sponsoring the series of outdoor gospel meetings being held on Sixth street between Scott and Lincoln during the week and on Sunday nights. These meetings are under the care of Rev. Henry Satorio, one of Dr. Smiley's assistants, who will speak again tomorrow evening.

GOD'S INSTRUMENT IN PREPARATION.

Exodus 2:11-25—July 13.
"Blessed are the meek; for they shall inherit the earth."—Matthew 5:5.

The education of Moses is briefly summed up in the Scriptural statement that "he was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians." Legend tells us something of his schooling, and declares that he was a successful Egyptian general; but it is for use to follow the Bible account. The time was nearing when God intended to bring the Israelites out of Egypt into the land which He had promised Abraham should be theirs—a pictorial illustration of the still more wonderful deliverance by the Greater than Moses, which is now nearing.

The adopted son of the Egyptian princess, Moses must have been a court favorite, and in danger of cultivating pride and arrogance. As an offset, he had continually before him the fact that his features were Jewish, and that thus every one had knowledge of his identity with the despised and oppressed people. The tendency of this would naturally be toward one of two courses: Either he would seek to ignore the Hebrews and to become more identified with the Egyptians, or else he would exercise faith in the special promises of which his people were heirs as children of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

This was perhaps his first test. Would he prove loyal to God and to those Divine promises relating to the future? Would his faith be equal to the task of casting his lot with the enslaved and oppressed people, and thus losing caste with Pharaoh? St. Paul notes that Moses was a victor in respect to those matters. He chose to suffer affliction with the people of God rather than to enjoy the riches and honor which might have been his as an adopted member of the royal family.—Hebrews 11:24-26.

To Moses the Promise which God had made to Abraham, and repeated to Isaac and Jacob, and which still awaits fulfillment, was more to be desired than all the riches and honors of earth. Moses stood well this test, in respect to his faith and loyalty. He would be on God's side at any cost! Similarly, there have always been tests, to both Natural and Spiritual Israelites, and these tests are still applied in our day. The world holds out inducements to the Jew to abandon his covenant relationship with God, and to the Spiritual Israelite to

MR. HOLLOWAY IN PULPIT.

The evening sermon will deal with a vital social question of deep concern to capitalists, employers of labor and labor unions.

The choir will sing special selections tomorrow, as follows: Morning, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul;" Thayer, "What are These Arrayed;" Stainer.

Evening, "If My Immortal Saviour Lives;" Weber, "Protect Us Thro' the Coming Night;" Curschman.

The difference between "The Summer Girl" and "The Summer Woman" While the former is having a "good time" the latter is too often dragging around nervous, run down, tired out, with aching back and weary limbs, sleepless and wretched. Often it is kidney trouble not female trouble and Foley Kidney Pills are a direct and positive help for the condition. N. B. Danforth, Second and Market streets, Wil., Del.—Adv.

abandon his spiritual relationship with God. It is still true that all who live godly shall suffer persecution. But it will always be so, and great change is impending. Those who love righteousness shall be exalted, and the sinful will be punished.

Moses Discouraged, Heartbroken. Trusting in the Lord's Promise, Moses believed that the time had come for the deliverance of the Israelites from their bondage. He knew well of his miraculous preservation, and had the assurance of God's Promise that this signified that God had a special work for him to do. He was ready and anxious to begin that work. He knew not of his own unrecognition. Nothing was further from his thought than that he would require forty years more of special schooling.

An occasion to show his zeal for his brethren came when he saw an Egyptian abusing one of them unjustly. He threw himself into the conflict. The Egyptian was killed in the scuffle. The Israelite was delivered. Moses perceived that none of the Egyptians knew of this matter, so he buried the victim in the sand. He doubted not that his brethren would pass the word along that he was their friend and defender, and that they would look to him with confidence as their leader, when God's providence would open the door for them to leave Egypt.

But all these dreams faded when, on the following day, he perceived that there was no such loyalty among his brethren as he had expected. He therefore God highly exalted on the Lord in His resurrection, not only as high as He was before, but higher—"far above angels, principalities and powers, and every name that is named."—Philippians, 2:9-11.

Similarly, during this Gospel Age God is calling out of the world a saintly company, a Little Flock, to be associated with Jesus in His great work of the future—as promised by God to Abraham, saying, "In Thy Seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed." Those responsive to this special invitation are required to demonstrate their loyalty to God. All those whom God is now receiving as members of the Royal Priesthood must be tested in respect to their humility and their submissiveness to the Divine will.

Only those who learn this lesson and become "copies of God's dear Son" will be "meet for the inheritance of the saints in light"—prepared for glory, honor and immortality.

MOTORISTS' WANTS.

Mid-summer is here now, the automobile season is in full blast, and the motorist is in a hurry to get a car that he can easily, quickly and cheaply supply through the Want Ads.

By carefully watching the Want Columns, the motorist can save money in the sale of tires, various sundries, lamps, inner tubes and the hundred and one things, so costly to buy first hand, that he can get at a very low price.

Then if he has a special want that does not appear in the Want Columns, a little Want Ad run once or twice will like as not supply it for him at a saving.

The automobile owner who neglects the Want Ads loses money that might just as well as not be saved.

The Want Ads are used to advantage in buying, selling, exchanging automobiles.

REAPING BENEFIT

From the Experience of Wilmington People.

We are fortunate indeed to be able to profit by the experience of our neighbors. The public utterances of Wilmington residents on the following subject will interest and benefit many of our readers. Read this statement. No better proof can be had.

William R. Collins, iron worker, 407 E. Third St., Wilmington, Del., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills when I have needed them for years and have never failed to help me. Some years ago I had pneumonia and it left me with a very weak back. This weakness, together with strains I received while working, gave me a severe attack of kidney trouble. My back bothered me mostly in the morning when I first got up and was generally stiff and lame. Sometimes I could hardly stoop. As soon as I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills I got a box at Danforth's Pharmacy. Since using them I have never had to worry about my back. Doan's Kidney Pills have always given me prompt relief."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McIlbain Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

WONDERFUL HOW

RESINOL CURED ITCHING HUMOR

New York, N. Y., May 19, 1913.—"I was taken with a terrible itching and burning in my hands. They would crack and bleed. I could not do any work. I had to walk the floors at night. I tried Resinol Soap, but no relief, until I used Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment—then I could go to sleep
