MISSION OBSERVES SIXTH BIRTHDAY

Church Workers of Washington and Baltimore Join in Anniversary
Celebration of Mission.

Church workers of Washington and Baltimore assembled yesterday to celebrate the sixth anniversary of the foundation of the Gospel Mission, at 24½ Four-and-a-half Street Northwest. The exercises were divided into three sessions, the morning service being held in Wesley M. E. Church, the afternoon session at the mission, and the evening session in Foundry M. E. Church.

George W. Wheeler presided at the morning session, with W. H. Evans officiating as musical director. The program included music by the Baltimore Gospel Train, composed of Mrs. George Allen, and Smith; Dr. and Mrs. D. N. Miller, W. H. Evans, and Miss Catherine Reese; testimonials from the mission converts, and an address by Representative Ainey of Pennsylvania.

B. H. Warner presided at the afternoon session, with Percy S. Foster as musical director. Addresses were made by Dr. E. E. Richardson, chairman of the board of directors of the mission; Rev. Dr. Donald C. MacLean, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, and Dr. W. W. Barnes, pastor of Douglas Memorial M. E. Church.

Reports were read by the Women's Council, Women's Prayer League, Ladies' Auxiliary, and Gospel Mission Brotherhood. Mrs. Kantz, of the Missouri Avenue Mission, told of the work accomplished by that institution.

The evening service was marked by addresses by Representatives McCrary of Pennsylvania and Nelson of Wisconsin. Many instrumentalists prominent in the churches of Washington aided in the success of the service.

Among the philanthropies practiced by the Gospel Mission are the following: A. T. T. Hotel, which had 41,750 persons last year; lodgings, which housed 22,000; employment bureau, which procured more than 100 situations; the penny luncheons, which furnished 15,000 meals in two months; a dispensary, treating 200 patients; and a garment distribution bureau, which clothed more than 1,000 persons.

ANACOSTIA

Logan Post, No. 12, G. A. R. of Anacostia, is awaiting the decision of officials of the Freedmen's Hospital for the license as to whether the post will be allowed to conduct memorial services there this year, as it has for the last twenty years. It is rumored that permission will not be granted, but those interested state that there is nothing to indicate that this will be the case.

Logan Post, the Relief Corps, No. 7, is awaiting to obtain a license to conduct the graves of the old soldiers and sailors who died at the hospital, and will be assisted by a committee of ladies selected by Capt. William A. White.

The monthly meeting of the board of directors of the German Orphan Asylum was held yesterday afternoon, in Good Hope Road, with President John F. Schneider in the chair. Reports were presented covering the condition of the institution, and arrangements for future development made. Following the meeting, supper was served.

Meeting of the Congress Heights Citizens' Association was scheduled for Tuesday evening of this week in Nichols Avenue, when important business will be presented for consideration.

The average salary of the 160,000 clergymen of the United States is but $63 a year—little more than that of an office boy.

OPENS NEW SHOWROOMS.

Cook & Stoddard Company at 1128 Connecticut Avenue.

The Cook & Stoddard Company, pioneer automobile house of Washington, and agents for the Pierce-Arrow, Cadillac and Baker electric autos, will this morning formally open their new salesroom and service department at 1128-8 Connecticut Avenue.

This will be "opening week" at the handsome, commodious new establishment, and engraved announcement cards to that effect are being sent out to motorists and the public generally extending an invitation to call and inspect the elegantly appointed new quarters.

The result of the new arrangement is that one roof covers every department of the Cook & Stoddard Company's business, the entrance to the showrooms being on Connecticut Avenue and extending through to Eighteenth Street, which is the entrance to the service department.

No expense has been spared in the furnishing and equipping of the new establishment, and it is the opinion of its kind in the city, and it equals in beauty the finest in the country.

The new place has been finished in a manner that is in keeping with the dignity of the line of cars they handle—cars of quality and beauty.

Joseph Stoddard, assisted by Rudolph Jose, George Weaver, R. U. Gleib and F. W. Webber, will be at "home" this week, extending a smile and welcome to all visitors.

ABE MARTIN SAYS:

"I am an Expert Operator. Are your teeth beautiful as they should be? Do they look white and healthy, or are they in such a state that they mar your features? I am an expert operator and my work is guaranteed. See me to-day, and let me put your teeth in perfect condition at a small cost."
