American Express Company Gives Important Facts to Public.

The Herald is in receipt of a pamphlet written by James C. Fargo, president of the American Express Company, giving some inside facts regarding the express business, with some interesting and illuminating information about the concern. Contrary to the general belief that the express companies make 99 percent profit, it shows that during the 43 years of its existence it has paid an annual dividend averaging 6 1/2 percent. In refutation of the charge that express companies are in part responsible for the high cost of living, it shows that fresh salmon are shipped in refrigerator cars from the Pacific to the Atlantic coast at a cost of 1 cent per pound per 1,000 miles; that dressed meat is sent from Chicago to New York for 1 1/2 cents per pound, including delivery at point of destination; that a crate of eggs can be shipped from Parma to Boise for 1 cent per dozen; and that butter is shipped in some instances as low as four-tenths of a cent per pound. And, what is more important, express rates will be further reduced on February 1, 1914.

Good Roads Tax Illegal.

Judge Bryan has held that the good roads tax assessed in the Notus district is illegal—or rather that it is excessive—and the same will not be collected. In making the levy the rate was fixed through error at 15 cents instead of 15 mills, and amounted to about 40 percent of the whole tax.

Attend Play at Boise.

Quite a number of Parma lovers of the drama went to see Margaret Livingston in "Within the Law" last week and all returned well pleased with the actress and the whole cast of characters. Those who went to Weber Thursday night were: Messrs and Mesdames W. E. Babcock, E. G. Jewell, W. S. Clore, T. O. Humphreys, E. H. Brunback, R. L. Stockton, E. E. McReight and Lee Fisk. Those attending the show at Boise Friday night were: Messrs and Mesdames G. C. Griffiths, J. C. Blackwell, E. M. Kirkpatrick, W. E. Fisk, F. E. Fisk, H. C. Baldrige, and Misses Cleora Campbell, Gail Baldrige and Lois Fisk.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION. Department of the Interior, U. S. Land Office at Boise, Idaho, December 10, 1913.

Notice is hereby given that Louis Anderson, of Parma, Idaho, who, on May 14, 1907, made Homestead Entry No. 9993, Serial No. 94420, for W 1/4 SW 1/4, Section 23, Township 4 N., Range 5 W., Boise Meridian, has filed notice of intention to make final 5-year proof, to establish claim to the land above described, before Alfred F. Stone, U. S. Commissioner, at Caldwell, Idaho, on the 20th day of January, 1914.

Claimant names as witnesses: Kollie S. Brown, Elmer L. Mattingly, Louis Hudson, John Swanson, all of Parma, Idaho. William Balderston, 12-18 1-15 Register.

Guard of Thanks.

Through the Herald I wish to express my heartfelt thanks to the friends and neighbors who gave me such kind assistance and loving help during my recent bereavement.

Mrs. Henry T. Shaw.

Notice.

To all water users in the village of Parma, if water rent is not paid before January 1, 1914, the water will be shut off.

MATCH ENDS IN ACCIDENT

Leichtner Has Collar Bone Broken in Two Places Saturday Night.

At the wrestling match Saturday night between Johnny Hatfield of Nyssa and Earl Leichtner of Cambridge, Leichtner had the misfortune to break his collar bone in two places in the early part of the contest. He gamely stayed on the mat for 20 minutes, when the pain compelled him to quit. Neither secured a fall and the purse was divided half and half. Both of the boys are good men and clean wrestlers. Leichtner had the same bone broken by a fall from a horse last August, and it was evidently in a weakened condition. The accident was greatly regretted by Mr. Hatfield and the audience, and the boys were putting up a splendid exhibition of the wrestling art before it happened.

In the preliminary, Ray Christensen of Payette, the champion heavyweight of Idaho, agreed to throw Sam Webb and Bob Woods in 20 minutes. He won, but had only two minutes to spare. Webb stayed 5 and Woods 13 minutes.

Installation of Officers.

The Parma Masonic lodge installed their officers for the ensuing term Wednesday evening. Those who will serve during the coming year are: W. H. McCox, W. M.; S. G. Tuning, S. W.; J. C. Blackwell, Sec.; E. G. Johnson, Treas.; R. B. Mitchell, S. D.; F. H. Chapman, J. D.; Wm. Leigh, Tyler; C. L. and Pat Harratty, Stewards.

Harold Vahl, of Nyssa, is helping out the Herald force this week.

M. E. Bain, editor of the Ontario Argus, and Wm. McBratney, a prominent merchant of that enterprising city, were pleasant visitors at the Herald office Sunday.

Don't forget the big turkey shoot at Big Bend—or we should rather say, Riverside—Saturday and Sunday. Both trap and rifle shooting will be used. The trap work will be in charge of A. E. Woods, and the rifle matches will be supervised by Zeke Brumback. It is expected that a rifle club will be organized at the Sunday meet.

State Senator H. C. Baldrige of Canyon county was in the city on Friday looking after business matters and took occasion to call on several friends at the statehouse. Senator Baldrige, who is in business at Parma, speaks with enthusiasm of conditions in his community, of the fine crops and the progress that is being made in many lines.—Statesman.

R. U. Riha, the O. S. L. day operator, has been transferred to Soda Springs. R. C. was a prime favorite with the patrons of the Parma office, and all regret the change. Likewise, all the ladies in town are mad at losing Mrs. Riha from our social life. Every time the Short Line discovers that it has a good man at Parma it moves him to some other town. We'll get even with that bunch some of these days. And in the meantime, the best wishes of our people go with Mr. and Mrs. Riha.

GETS RHODES SCHOLARSHIP

Prof. Mow of This City Selected as Student to Oxford.

Mr. Baxter M. Mow, assistant in the Parma High School has, during the past week, been awarded the Rhodes Scholarship to Oxford University in England by the faculty of the University of Idaho, from which he graduated last spring. This scholarship is given according to a bequest of the late Cecil Rhodes, owner of the diamond industry in South Africa, by which each state of the United States is granted a yearly scholarship at Oxford, tenable for three successive years and valued at $1500 per year, to be awarded to scholars in the following way: Twice in three years examinations are held at the State University, in which candidates are examined in Greek, Latin and mathematics. From those who successfully pass this examination, a committee of the faculty of the University selects a scholar, having regard to his ability as a scholar and athlete, and his character. The scholar is then enrolled by one of the colleges of Oxford. Those who have received scholarships from Idaho in previous years are: 1904 Lawrence H. Gipson, Modern History; 1905 Carol Howe Foster, English Literature; 1907 McKoen F. Morrow Jurisprudence; 1908 George H. Curtis, Literature; 1910 Toney T. Crooks, Medicine; 1911 Ludwig S. Gerlough, Modern Languages; 1912 Ralph B. Foster, Jurisprudence. These scholarships are very highly prized as they furnish splendid opportunities for becoming acquainted with English life and institutions and promoting goodwill between England and America, as well as for self advancement and travel on the continent.

Report comes from Iowa that E. G. Johnson and Captain Porterfield have purchased the interest of John Ennis and Thos. Walsh in the Idaho Land Co. and Idaho Investment Co. The details of the transaction have not been learned. Mr. Johnson is expected home Saturday.

"Judicial Judge" is Right.

Another choice mouthful comes from the Capital News, of Boise. Referring to a recent conference between Governor Haines and John Hart, the Mormon-Republican leader, it says: "A third matter that it was rumored was discussed was the question of providing an additional judge for the southeastern counties. 'Judicial Judge' is good. We need another in the state. And the Capital News is getting wise. It says 'It is rumored that it was discussed.'"

BULLETIN ON HOG CHOLERA

University of Idaho Will Put Out Valuable Pamphlet.

The University of Idaho will shortly issue a bulletin on hog cholera, giving all data necessary for the prevention and stamping out of the disease. Five thousand copies will be printed. It would be well for everyone interested to write immediately for a copy of this pamphlet. It will be one of the most valuable publications to hog raisers on record, and the supply will soon be exhausted. Get your order in early. If you are too busy to write, leave your name with Herald, and we will see that you are supplied with a copy, as long as the supply lasts.

Soaking Snowballs.

We'll bet that the editor of the Hailey News-Miner either has a brick in his hand or is soaking snowballs. He says: "Take your tax receipt into the booth with you Haines is going to be a candidate for governor again next year. Good."

Try to Close Postoffice.

There is no doubt in the mind of any thinking man about the existence of a deity, but He certainly works in a mysterious way and through devious channels. We understand that there is a petition being circulated to close the postoffice on Sunday, as it interferes with church attendance. We don't know. Of course the postmaster will go to hell for working an hour on Sunday in order to give the people their reading matter, but we rather enjoy sitting down and reading and digesting Pastor Russell's sermons, and who loves a postmaster anyway? Perhaps the local theologians have something better to offer than Pastor Russell and other noted workers in the cause, and we should be compelled to hear it. We don't know.

SILVER CUP EXHIBITED

Trophy Won by J. H. Trout at the Portland Stock Show.

There is a silver cup on exhibition in the window of the Parma State bank that should be an inspiration to Parma and vicinity. It was won by J. H. Trout at the recent Portland livestock show, for the best hog exhibit. It shows what intelligent feeding will do for the stock raiser. Remember, this cup was contested for in every section of the Northwest. It is a great tribute to one of our scientific stockraisers, and a greater tribute to the section he represents.

Receives Heirloom.

Dr. Waldrop is one of the happiest men in town. He received today a silver spoon that has been in the family for 250 years, and was a wedding present to his grandmother from her grand mother. He received also a picture of a family group taken 32 years ago, which shows Doc as a small kid hiding behind his sister, and his uncle, Howard Sebree, in a pose not half as dignified as he carries now. It also shows that Mrs. Sebree is better looking today than she was then.

Appointed Receiver.

Dec. 10th, 1913. The undersigned has this day been appointed Receiver of the property of the Idaho Oregon Light & Power Co. and until further notice will operate the same under the direction of the United States District Court. The patrons of the Company are assured of good service and the plant will be operated to its highest degree of efficiency. The continued patronage and confidence of the public is cordially solicited.

W. J. Ferris, Receiver.

All Mixed Up.

We don't know whether it was premeditated or not, but the Pocatello Chronicle pulled off the best bon mot of the year. It runs under the head of "Smile Producers" an advertisement of "A Home Visitors Excursion, via the Oregon Short Line," and a "Notice of Special Election to Determine Whether the Sale of Intoxicating Liquors as a Beverage shall be Prohibited in Bannock County, Idaho." If anyone can beat that combination now should be his busy time. And by the way, the Chronicle has come out in a new form and a new dress that should be appreciated by its readers.
