HUGHES BRAND IS MURKY

The question of what is the difference between Wilson Americanism, and Hughes' "undiluted Americanism," which was asked by Henry Watterson in a recent issue of the Louisville Courier-Journal, has been answered by Robert B. Nixon, Jr., of Philadelphia. Mr. Nixon sent his answer to the "Editor's Mail Bag" in the Philadelphia Record.

"Wilson Americanism is a clear solution," said Mr. Nixon. "Hughes is a cloudy emulsion that separates in the middle, needs a 'shake well' label, generates carbonic acid gas and blows out the cork or bursts the bottle."

"In the chemistry of human life we find many mixtures. Some are a permanent clear solution, others a muddy, murky emulsion that needs to be shaken constantly because of separation. These emulsions become rancid and are capable of receiving most any old thing or ingredient, and can always be made fairly presentable at a distance if well shaken."

For the business man, the Federal Reserve Act; for the farmer, the Rural Credits System; for the manufacturer and merchant, the Federal Trade Commission; for the Wall Street speculator, nothing. That is the record of the first four years of Wilson's endeavors for better business.

The republican congressmen who voted for the democratic income tax provision the other day utterly disregarded the fact that Charles Evans Hughes was the only governor who fought the income tax amendment to the Federal Constitution.

In his Fourth of July speech, Mr. Hughes said "quiet men, not noisy men" represent "what we mean by Americanism." Is it possible he was drawing an odious comparison as between himself and T. R. as exponents of true Americanism?

The headlines in certain newspapers indicate keen disappointment because the president has obtained concessions from Carranza without the sacrifice of the boys of the National Guard.

Taking Big Chances

It is a great risk to travel without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, as this preparation cannot be obtained on the trains or steamships. FATHERHOOD OF GOD SHOWN IN SCRIPTURE

Only Those Who Are Sons of God by Acceptance of His Terms May Call Him Father.

Signification of the Word Father. This Relationship Means Responsibility—How Mankind Lost Their Sonship—God's Character Misunderstood. His Love For His Human Offspring.

Portland, Maine, July 23.—Pastor Russell was here today, in attendance upon the I. B. S. A. Convention assembled in our city, and delivered a very instructive lecture based upon the opening clause of the Lord's Prayer. We give a synopsis.

The pastor declared that there is a measure of truth in the well-known expression, "The fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man," but not in the sense in which it is commonly used—that since God is the life-giver of the world, therefore He is under obligation to save all mankind—that the world is to have universal salvation. While the thought of universal salvation is much to be preferred to that of universal damnation, yet neither is wholly Scriptural. According to the Bible God is the Father of all. In that the race received life from Him when He created Adam. But Adam forfeited his sonship by his disobedience; and his entire race have been born in a condition of alienation from God. Only through faith in the redemption effected by the death of our Lord Jesus Christ can any human being hope for salvation.

The speaker reminded his audience that the word father means life-giver, one who bestows life. He pointed out the Bible declaration that all life emanates from God alone, and that the Heavenly Father recognizes His responsibility in this respect. Every earthly parent has a responsibility for his child. It is his duty to make provision for the child's welfare, physical, mental and moral. Whoever cannot do this has no right to bring a child into being. This seems to be a just principle, one generally recognized by all intelligent people. Then surely it would apply to the great Father from whom comes every blessing.

People Misled by False Theology. This thought contradicts much of current theology; for when the creeds tell us that God is all-wise, all-powerful, loving and good, they spoil it all by declaring that, notwithstanding His Wisdom, Justice, Love and Power, He is sending the vast majority of mankind to endless misery—in other words, that He has made a miserable failure in creating mankind, and that His Plan of Salvation is a farce. Even without a Bible, we should have known better than this. The only reasonable explanation for our believing such teachings is that given by the Apostle Paul—that Satan has so blinded the minds of many that they seem unable to reason intelligently upon the subject.—2 Corinthians 4:4; 1 Timothy 4:1.

The adversary has shrewdly backed up the theory of eternal torment by the other theory that God made man immortal, and therefore cannot destroy him. How pernicious the idea that, in creating man, God gave him something that even his Creator is powerless to take from him! This theory is directly contradicted by our Lord Jesus Himself, when He said, "Fear Him who is able to destroy both soul and body in Gehenna"—the Second Death.—Matthew 10:28; Ezekiel 18:4, 20; Psalm 145:20.

Some of our learned people talk about "the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man." This thought is not upheld in Scripture. While the Bible declares that mankind are the offspring of God, that He is their Creator, yet it does not say that He is now the Father of the race. Many of these men urge the theory of eternal salvation for all mankind. While preferable to the theory of universal damnation, this theory is also unscriptural.

Through Sin Came Death. The plain declaration of the Bible is that our first parents received life from God, and were forewarned that if they disobeyed Him He would take that life from them. Not even a hint was given that the penalty for disobedience would be a life continued in eternal torment. (Genesis 2:17; 3:19; Romans 6:23.) Man lost his right to life by taking a wrong course. From God's standpoint, the human race is dead. Thus we see that mankind today are not children of God. Adam was a son of God until he forfeited that blessed relationship. Since his sin there have been no human sons of God except Jesus while he was in the flesh.

When our Lord came into the world, He opened up a way whereby those who would follow closely in His steps might become sons of God on the very highest plane of life. If faithful unto death, they would share the glorious reward which the Father had promised Him—immortality, life in its highest form. For over 1800 years the Call to sonship has gone quietly forth. Comparatively few have responded. But it is to these alone that God now becomes the Father.—John 1:12; Romans 8:17; 1 John 3:1-3.

FARM NEWS

The Lakeside F. I. A. (Navajo county) is planning to start a cheese factory.

The Navajo county F. I. A. advisory council held its monthly meeting at Snowflake, on July 8th.

The Cochise county F. I. A. advisory council will hold its next regular meeting at Cochise July 28th. Farm Advisor Paschall and State Leader Morse will be present.

Prof. G. W. Barnes, livestock specialist of the University of Arizona agricultural extension service is attending the graduate school of agriculture at Amherst, Mass. Dr. R. H. Williams, animal husbandman, and Prof. S. B. Johnson, assistant horticulturist, are also in attendance.

The reports for June of the two cow testing associations, which were organized in the Salt River Valley, by the University of Arizona agricultural extension service, show that each had the following number of cows which produced over 40 pounds of butter fat: Arizona Pioneer Co-operative, W. W. Pickrel, tester, 36 cows; Madison Scottsdale, G. W. Scheerer, tester, 25 cows. Most of these cows were grade Holsteins.

Fall wheat planted the last week in September and the first week in October, has given the best results under dry farming in Navajo and Apache counties, reports Farm Advisor Fillrup. An unknown variety of wheat introduced by Lars Peterson, of Pinedale, seems to have yielded best this year. It is recommended that potatoes under dry farming be planted so as to bring them into bloom during the rainy season, the latter part of June. Light showers are reported.

The meetings which are being held on the plots of the cooperating farm demonstrators in Egyptian cotton growing in the Salt River Valley, have been very successful, reports Prof. E. W. Hudson, Egyptian cotton specialist of the University of Arizona Agricultural Extension Service co-operating with the United States Department of Agriculture. One farmer who, has attended three successive meetings, is now able to economize greatly in applying irrigating water. Another grower has changed his type of cultivator from disk to shovel. The demonstration fields will probably make an average yield of from a bale to a bale and a quarter of Egyptian cotton per acre.

Farm Advisor Ballantyne, of Graham Greenlee counties, was visited by Prof. Stanley F. Morse, superintendent agricultural extension service and State leader. The farmers are showing great interest in the work and are pushing the development of the county F. I. A. Ballantyne is working on the details of the plan for the agricultural development of Graham and Greenlee counties and will soon be ready to submit his proposed projects to the advisory council of the county F. I. A. A special effort will be made to standardize the Early Bart wheat throughout valley. The New Farmers' Co-operative Creamery at Pima has 700 cows.

OBITUARY

After an illness of four months, Mrs. Zilla Follett passed away at her home in Pima, Sunday, July 23, 1916.

Mrs. Follett was born in Provo, Utah. It was in that city that she met I. A. Follett and afterward became his bride, the marriage taking place in the Temple at Salt Lake City, July 5, 1875. They lived in Provo for two years and in 1877 they moved to Arizona, settling in Pima, where they have since lived.

Mrs. Follett was the mother of six children, five of whom are living and four are married. Mrs. Follett was loved and respected by all who knew her. She was a kind and loving wife and mother. For years she was a teacher in the Pima Relief Society and always did her duty when her health permitted.

The funeral services were held in Pima church, Tuesday. Her children and grandchildren were present, together with a large assemblage of friends and relatives.

The Pima choir rendered many beautiful hymns, among which was Mrs. Follett's favorite, "Sometime, We'll Understand." Bishop Phil C. Merrill, John W. Mattice, Frank McBride and Joseph H. Lines were the speakers. They all told of the beautiful character of the deceased. The interment was made in the Pima cemetery.

Sanford Brown, father of Gratz Brown and Mrs. W. B. McLoughlin, died at his home in San Antonio, Texas, July 11, 1916, aged 85 years. Interment was made in Sutherland, Texas.

RAILROAD WAGES

Shall they be determined by Industrial Warfare or Federal Inquiry?

To the American Public:

Do you believe in arbitration or industrial warfare?

The train employees on all the railroads are voting whether they will give their leaders authority to tie up the commerce of the country to enforce their demands for a 100 million dollar wage increase.

The railroads are in the public service—your service. This army of employees is in the public service—your service.

You pay for rail transportation 3 billion dollars a year, and 44 cents out of every dollar from you goes to the employees.

On all the Western railroads in 1915, seventy-five per cent of the train employees earned these wages (lowest, highest and average of all) as shown by the pay rolls—

	Passenger		Freight		Yard
	Range	Average	Range	Average	Range	Average
Engineers	$1747	$2195	$1537	$2071	$1056	$1378
	3094		3076		2445
Conductors	1543	1878	1454	1935	1151	1355
	2789		2933		2045
Firemen	1033	1317	751	1181	418	973
	2078		2059		1552
Brakemen	854	967	874	1135	862	1107
	1719		1961		1821

The average yearly wage payments to all Western train employees (including those who worked only part of the year) as shown by the 1915 payrolls were—

	Passenger	Freight	Yard
Engineers	$2038	$1737	$1218
Conductors	1772	1624	1292
Firemen	1218	973	832
Brakemen	921	1000	1026

A 100 million dollar wage increase for men in freight and yard service (less than one-fifth of all employees) is equal to a 5 per cent advance in all freight rates.

The managers of the railroads, as trustees for the public, have no right to place this burden on the cost of transportation to you without a clear mandate from a public tribunal speaking for you.

The railroads have proposed the settlement of this controversy either under the existing national arbitration law, or by reference to the Interstate Commerce Commission. This offer has been refused by the employees' representatives.

Shall a nation-wide strike or an investigation under the Government determine this issue?

EXIT THE CARNIVAL

The carnival, which has been showing here the past week, pulled up stakes Monday night and left Tuesday for Globe, where it will enter upon a week's engagement. Incidentally the Fire Laddies have added about $300.00 to their fund for the maintenance of the new fire truck as a result of the carnival's engagement here.
